ONLY 8 LARGE SHIPS SUNK BY FOE LAST WEEK

Number of Vessels Under 1,600 Tons Lost is Highest Yet

London, Sept. 20.—British merchant ships of 1,600 tons or more sunk by submarine during the last week numbered eight, according to the Admiralty report last night. Twenty ships of less than 1,600 tons were sunk, and one fishing vessel. The summary is as follows: Arrivals, 2,696; sailings, 2,787. British merchant ships above 1,600 tons sunk, eight; under 1,600 tons, including nine previously, 20. British merchant vessels unsuccessfully attacked, six. Fishing vessels sunk, one.

The Admiralty report shows the smallest number of large ships sunk since the beginning of the publication of weekly statistics, which fol-

The number of ships of less than 1,600 tons is the largest for any week except one since February. The total number of ships sunk is the largest since the week ending June 24. The Admiralty statement for the week ending September 9 showed 12 British vessels of more than 1,600 tons sunk by mines or submarines. That was the lowest mark since the week ending March 10, when 13 vessels of that category were lost. The greatest number of vessels of less than 1,600 tons was in the week ending May 6, when 22 went down.

The machinery at the Trenton Eastern Steel Co. plant was damaged by fire to the extent of $125,000.

INVESTIGATORS FAIL TO LOCATE TYPHOID CARRIER

Three New Cases This Month, Health Department Records.

Despite a long and far-reaching examination by the health department, the typhoid carrier who caused infection of a supply of milk which reached Bridgeport last month causing nine cases of the disease, has been unsuccessful.

Several suspicious symptoms were found but nothing definite was discovered warranting isolation.

Three cases of typhoid fever have been reported this month, but, according to Health Officer W. H. Brown, they are not related to the first group.

RECRUIT GETS GIFTS.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the employees of the delivery department of the Howland Dry Goods Co., assembled and bade John Ford, of 114 Grand street who left this morning for Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., a fond farewell and Godspeed. Fred Steinmetz, one of the oldest employees, made the presentation speech. He told of the long and valuable service that Mr. Ford had given the company and of the happy and most pleasant relations that have always existed. In conclusion he presented Mr. Ford a handsomely engraved signet ring, a razor, a pearl handled pocket knife. Mr. Ford has been connected with The Howland Co. for 11 years and is the oldest man in point of service. Last evening at his home he was the recipient of a wrist watch from other associates.

The expulsion of Robert M. La Follette from the United States Senate was demanded by the Association of Commerce of Green Bay, Wis.

State Senator Elmer Warner of Weatherly, Pa., offered $1,000 to the first man in the Pennsylvania draft army who captures the first German.
